MONAD Studio was founded in 2004 in New York by Design Principals Eric Goldemberg and Veronica Zalcberg.

MONAD Studio is an award-winning architecture practice focused in spatial perception related to rhythmic affect, with a variety of explorations ranging from the scale of urban plans to buildings, and from landscape to art installations, product design and music instruments.
MONAD Studio's designs highlight the range and complexity of sensations involved in constructing rhythmic ensembles at all scales of the urban experience, enhancing social interaction.

The work of MONAD Studio has been published in The New York Times, Architectural Record, World Architecture (China), ArtDaily, 'Architecture in Formation' book, '[En]Coding Architecture' book, 'Architecture Xenoculture' book, 'Digital Diagram II' book, Conditions Magazine (Norway), i4Design (Chicago), Future Arquitecturas (Spain), Miami Herald, Florida InsideOut (Miami), Design Book Magazine (Miami), Summa+ (Argentina), Evolo Magazine (L.A.), among other architecture journals.
MONAD Studio was one of the 5 finalists of the 2008 PS1-MoMA competition and the project was exhibited at the Museum of Modern Art (MoMA) in New York. MONAD's entry was also exhibited in New York at the PS-1 Contemporary Art Center – YAP 10th Anniversary show.

MONAD Studio's unique 3D-printed music instruments, sonic installations and sculptures have been exhibited and played live at MoMA, PS1 Contemporary Art Center, Metropolitan Gallery (New York); Jaroslava Fragnera Gallery (Prague); Art Wynwood, South Florida Art Center, Diana Lowenstein Fine Arts Gallery (Miami).

The principals of MONAD Studio have lectured about their projects at very prestigious institutions worldwide, such as The Cooper Union (New York), Columbia University (New York), MIT (Boston), Architectural Association (London), Die Angewandte Kunst Wien (program in Cagliari), UdK - Universität der Künste (Berlin), Politecnico di Milano (Milan), ETSAB (Barcelona), Iaac (Barcelona), 3D Printshow - Metropolitan Gallery (New York), University of Puerto Rico, MOCA (Miami), Wolfsonian Museum (Miami), Florida International University (Miami), University of Miami, University of Buenos Aires, Di Tella University (Buenos AIres). They are the authors of the book "Pulsation in Architecture" which highlights the range and complexity of sensations involved in constructing rhythmic ensembles.

Eric Goldemberg - Principal Designer
Eric is an architect, with a professional degree from the University of Buenos Aires and a Master of Science in Advanced Architectural Design from Columbia University, New York. He worked for Peter Eisenman as Senior Designer for the City of Culture of Galicia, Spain as well as heading design teams in several competitions. He was also Project Architect for Asymptote Architecture (Hani Rashid & Lise Anne Couture) on projects in Malaysia, The Netherlands and the Guggenheim Museum in Guadalajara, Mexico. In Buenos Aires he collaborated with Clorindo Testa and Estudio STAFF – the latter founded by his parents Jorge Jose Goldemberg and Teresa Blelus, with over 2,000,000 m2 of social housing projects built in South America.
Eric Goldemberg is Associate Professor and Digital Design Coordinator at Florida International University in Miami where he teaches graduate studios and advanced digital design and fabrication courses. Previously he taught at Pratt Institute, Columbia University, New York Institute of Technology, New Jersey Institute of Technology, and University of Buenos Aires.

Veronica Zalcberg - Principal Designer
She is an architect from Argentina, with a professional degree from the University of Buenos Aires and a Master of Science in Advanced Architectural Design from Columbia University. In New York, Veronica worked for United Architects (Greg Lynn, Alejandro Zaera Polo + Farshid Moussavi, Jesse Reiser + Nanako Umemoto, Ben van Berkel and Caroline Bos, Kevin Kennon and Imaginary Forces) on the prestigious World Trade Center Competition and ECB World Bank Competition. Previously she had an extensive professional practice in Buenos Aires, receiving prizes for various competitions and relevant built projects.
Zalcberg taught graduate design studios at Columbia University and New Jersey Institute of Technology.

FRAUDULENT “ARCHITECT” CLAIMS

This document lists instances of Eric Goldemberg and Veronica Zalcberg illegally, intentionally, knowingly and fraudulently claiming the title “architect” while simultaneously unlicensed. In addition, Monad Studio itself is not, and has never been, a licensed architecture practice (signed certificates of non-licensure from DBPR attached)

These five instances (1-5) are the most prominent. These links prove that Eric Goldemberg himself has publicly and illegally claimed to be an “architect” verbatim explicitly in order to promote his company, Monad Studio, which is located in Miami Florida, USA.

1. MONAD STUDIO’S OFFICIAL 2025 WEBSITE STATES...

https://www.monadstudio.com/About-MONAD-Studio
-“MONAD Studio is an award-winning architecture practice...with a variety of explorations ranging from the scale of urban plans to buildings...”
-“Eric is an architect”
-“Veronica Zalcberg - Principal Designer She is an architect”

2. ERIC GOLDEMBERG’S 2025 PERSONAL FACEBOOK STATES...

https://www.facebook.com/eric.goldemberg/
-”Eric Goldemberg - Principal Architect at MONAD Studio February 2004 - Present · Miami Beach, Florida”
-“Monad Studio...a design research practice with focus on innovative *architecture...ranging from urban design”

3. ERIC GOLDEMBERG’S VIDEO INTERVIEW STATES...

(Fast forward to video mark 31:39)
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Fswx1oJz7qE&ab_channel=CNAInsider
-“I AM AN ARCHITECT” - At video mark 31:55, Eric Goldemberg himself claims that he is an architect inside of an architecture school in Miami Florida to promote his architecture practice which is located in Miami, Florida (Not Argentina).
-“Monad Studio is very involved with an evolution of the scale of architecture” At video mark 32:18 Eric Goldemberg continues to use the term architecture to fraudulently bolster his unearned “architect” claim
- PLAGIARISM: At video mark 32:00, Eric Goldemberg illegally displays more of my viral copyright registered FIU student work from 2024 without permission, credit, or compensation. Eric Goldemberg displayed my work without my permission, without credit and without compensation. With this documentary, Eric Goldemberg commits aggressive retaliation under the false pretense of being a registered “architect” in a Miami Florida while simultaneously being a professor at an “architecture department” at FIU, all while filming this exact video inside of the “architecture department” building at FIU.

NOTE: This was not filmed on property owned by Monad Studio. This was not filmed on property owned by Eric Goldemberg or by Veronica Zalcberg. This video was illegally filmed on FIU property. This entire video makes no effort to make it clear that this was filmed inside of FIU illegally all while utilizing, claiming, displaying and exploiting student owned intellectual property. FIU is not mentioned in the end credits or in the Youtube description of this film. Eric Goldemberg unequivocally engaged in the filming of this documentary solely to bolster his fraudulent and unregistered “architect” title online in order to cross promote his fraudulent and unregistered “architecture practice” MONAD STUDIO.

4. “ARCHITECT” GOOGLE BUSINESS LISTING

OLD ADDRESS
1935 NE 147th Terrace, North Miami Beach, FL 33181

ADDITIONAL LINKS TO ILLEGAL "ARCHITECT" CLAIMS BY ERIC GOLDEMBERG, VERONICA ZALCBERG AND MEDIA

2008 - 2025 (Present)

This links below display verified instances of Eric Goldemberg and Veronica Zalcberg explicitly and illegally claiming to be "architects" themselves for their Miami, Florida, USA based company. The links below also display verified instances of media companies and journalists being lied to that these two have both been "architects" in Miami, Florida. All media posts intentionally attempt to redirect attention to their Miami, Florida based "architect" company and "architectural practice" while it is thoroughly unlicensed in the United States.
